During this week's reflection, pupils shared their highlights of the week. Here is a summary of their comments:

- Skiing because it was lovely to be above the clouds.
- The BBC drama about Anne Frank because it is really interesting to learn about her life so far.
- Trying out for the MacRobert Cup.
- It was fun dressing up for World Book Day and spotting the books in the rap.

This week ...	AOCB
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Monday was an absolutely fantastic day! We had super weather and it was really amazing to see the class skiing above the clouds in glorious sunshine all day. I was so proud of my class. They displayed such resilience on the slopes and worked really hard with the instructors to learn and perfect skills. I saw lots of encouragement and plenty of smiles on Monday. They all represented the school fantastically and the instructors commented on their manners and perseverance. • On Thursday we continued with 'Goodnight Mr Tom'. Willie is practising hard for his role as Scrooge and we all saw a fragile Mr Tom volunteer for choir practice with the children of Little Weirworld. • We focused on the power of propaganda in topic this week. Pupils analysed a variety of British and German propaganda. We researched the role of the Ministry of Information during WWII and also did a bit of fact finding on Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's Minister of Propaganda. I thoroughly enjoy our topical debates and mature discussions around WWII. Studying propaganda gave us an insight into Hitler's way of thinking, which is utterly baffling. We all agreed that British propaganda focussed on encouraging people to help with the war effort, whereas Germany's focus was forceful and threatening. • On Friday our Young Leaders lead another super P.E session with the Yellow Room. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • P.E will be on Mondays and Wednesdays Please can pupils come to school dressed in their P.E gear on a Monday. Please can I remind pupils to bring their water bottles to school daily. Bottles can be refilled throughout the day. Homework will be assigned each Monday and pupils will return by the Thursday. • Class trip to Cultybraggan Camp – Monday 20th March. Departing school at 8:30am and arriving back at approximately 5:00pm • P6 invite the community to attend a coffee/tea morning with board games.

Question stems for discussion at home:
